

ATTORNEYS STRENGTHENING NONPROFITS

Letter from Executive Director

Dear Friends,

Just last week we released our 2022 Impact Report detailing all that PBPO accomplished last year with your support. We hope you enjoy reading the Report and the positive ripple effect PBPO has made within our community since our founding eight short years ago.

We are also thrilled to share that we are moving our annual Volunteer & Donor Appreciation event back to April! This event serves as an opportunity to thank our amazing volunteers and donors for the positive impact they continue to make on our community. We will also be presenting our annual corporate, law firm, and individual awards. I hope you will join our celebration on April 27 at Procter & Gamble.

From all of us at PBPO, thank you for your continued commitment to our mission and work to strengthen our community with free business legal services for local nonprofits. We wish you a warm and joyous spring!

Erin Childs
Executive Director

PBPO News

It's Here! PBPO 2022 Impact Report

We are elated to share our 2022 Impact Report detailing all we accomplished last year with your support. With a 17% increase in nonprofit clients served, and an 18% increase in total legal matters we addressed, PBPO enhanced the capacity of more than 300 local nonprofits, creating a positive ripple effect in our community.

PBPO Hosts Legal Checkup

On February 28, PBPO hosted its first Legal Checkup of 2023! More than 40 talented attorneys from Dinsmore & Shohl and Procter & Gamble joined us for a training on the top legal issues nonprofits face, followed by legal checkups with nine amazing nonprofit organizations. Thank you to all who attended!

PBPO & Adam Centner, KMK Law, Receive QCBB Award

PBPO and attorney volunteer Adam Centner, KMK Law, were recently awarded with the 2023 Exceptional Community Partner Award from PBPO client Queen City Book Bank. Michelle Guenther, President of QCBB, said:

“Adam Centner volunteered to assist our organization during a pivotal time in our history and we couldn’t be more grateful. During this time, we completed a merger, launched a new program, moved to a much larger facility, and merged two boards. Adam provided top-notch legal counsel and made a very involved project manageable – and enjoyable! He has been a tremendous asset to our organization and his impact will be felt for years to come.”

We are grateful for the recognition from one of our amazing clients!

VOLUNTEER & DONOR Appreciation Reception

Join the Celebration!

PBPO Volunteer & Donor Appreciation – Thursday April 27

Join us on Thursday, April 27 from 5:00-7:00 p.m. at Procter & Gamble. Featuring guest speaker Mayor Aftab Pureval, we will be presenting our annual awards and celebrating our amazing attorney volunteers and donors for the positive impact they continue to make for our community.

VOLUNTEER SPOTLIGHT

Jason Stuckey, Bricker & Eckler

If you asked Jason Stuckey where to find him on the weekend, he would say one of two places: on a tennis court or spending time with his wife and daughter.

Jason began volunteering for PBPO soon after he joined Bricker & Eckler almost six years ago, and when we asked Jason why he enjoys volunteering for PBPO, he said: "I enjoy volunteering with PBPO because the projects are always interesting, and I enjoy getting to know the people dedicated to making our community better."

NONPROFIT HIGHLIGHT

Cincinnati Tennis Foundation

Since 2015, Cincinnati Tennis Foundation has offered opportunities to thousands of students and players across parks, schools, youth centers, and clubs throughout Cincinnati and its urban core.

"PBPO has been so impactful since our beginning. They give us confidence that we can tackle any challenge as we grow our foundation to make a lasting impact in Cincinnati. It was extra special that Jason Stuckey, an alumnus, was assigned to our projects. He has gone over and beyond and is always there to support our mission. Thank you, Jason, and PBPO." -Matt Dektas, Founder and CEO
